Neighborly Church Planting—Fr. B. Tyler Prescott

St. Paul's church planting team, over the last three months, has spent a good deal of time asking questions as a key part of this discernment process. The goal of the first phase in this church planting process is to discern the culture and values needed for this church to effectively proclaim the Gospel in it's context. To do so, we need to know who we are, who our neighbors are and what the Gospel might have to say through our particular church to our particular neighbors.

Therefore, we've been asking questions - of ourselves and our neighbors! First, we've asked, "What values do we hold that will define our mission and ministry?" These are not matters of belief, like the Holy Trinity or uniqueness of Christ, but principles that are derived from our faith and ministry context that will serve to define the culture of the new church. In defining ourselves from the beginning, we will have clarity about how our church is called to minister and how it is not.

Secondly, we've asked, "Who are the people who live in the communities we are trying to reach?" To answer this question, we have used MissionInsite (a non-profit demographics program) to capture the demographics and growth trends in the area. But even more importantly: We have taken to the streets, to the pools, the local coffee shops and playgrounds, Food Truck Fridays and farmer's markets. We are getting to know our neighbors personally and exploring the physical spaces that have drawn them to these communities. This getting-to-know-you time even includes looking at architecture and neighborhood layouts - much can be learned through these often overlooked details.

As we complete this first phase, we'll begin looking to build a larger, core team that will help launch the church in the future. This team will include folks from every stage of their faith journey and every stage of life. They will share in common a desire to be : Relationally involved (neighborly, if you will!) with the church's community, passionate about mission (not simply a Sunday worship service) and committed to an all-hands-on-deck service to the church. If you know of anyone who would like to be a part of something like that—have them contact me!

I've heard from a few people who get excited about this sort of neighborly church vision, but don't feel called to a church plant. Such is the beauty of church planting! That excitement for the Gospel is generated among all ministries and especially at the mother church of the plant. Let us all be in prayer that the Holy Spirit would spur both St. Paul's and her church plant to bring the Gospel into the neighborhoods of Summerville.—Tyler ☩

WELCOME TO ST. PAUL'S

We hope to create an atmosphere in which everyone feels welcomed with open arms. All guests are invited to visit our Welcome Table after the service today to receive a gift and information about St. Paul's.

TO PARENTS OF YOUNG CHILDREN - Relax! God put the wiggles and sweet little noises in children - don't feel like you have to suppress them in God's house.

- Consider sitting toward the front where children can more easily engage.
- Quietly explain the parts of the service and actions of the priests, musicians, acolytes, and leaders. While in Children's Church, your children learn: about bowing when the cross passes and why, as Anglicans, we do this; who the acolytes are; how the colors of the stoles match the liturgical calendar, prayers, etc. Now is a great time to show them what we are going over in Children's Church.
- Sing the songs and pray. Children learn behavior by mimicking you.
- If you have to leave the worship with your child—please feel free to do so, but please do come back.

Children's Church is provided for children ages 3-7. Please follow the check-in instructions above. The children will be dismissed for chapel during the 10:15 service. While there, your child will enjoy a time of chapel, bible lesson that follows the lectionary, learning our Anglican traditions, and, crafts and games.

COMMUNION—Anyone baptized in the Christian faith is welcome to receive communion.

WORSHIP AT ST. PAUL'S SUMMERVILLE

While our worship is similar to that of Anglicans across the world and through the ages, we are also a warm and loving congregation. We enjoy ancient hymns, as well as, modern worship songs produced by popular Christian artists. Worship that is biblical and draws hearts to the praise, honor, and glory of our Lord is the goal at all our services.

Our traditional worship with hymns is held in the historic Church Building. The contemporary worship, with a user-friendly screen and modern music, is in Doar Hall. We invite you to join us. All baptized Christians are welcome to join us for Holy Communion at the Lord's table.

GIVING—Cash and checks may be placed in the offering plates. We have electronic kiosks in Doar Hall for debit and credit cards. St. Paul's does not want anyone to incur debt in order to give to the Lord. We offer the kiosks as a convenience.

GIVING ENVELOPES—You may pick up a pack in the church office, in the back of Doar Hall, or the Church Building.

DOAR HALL COMMUNION—Communion wafers will be dispensed at the side aisle communion stations. Leavened bread is available at the altar. Feel free to choose either element/station.
